Screening candidates for advertised positions is important, and definite guidelines should be followed when calling qualified candidates. The Head of the Department calculates the human resource requirements by consolidating subject-wise teaching load and calculating student-teacher ratios according to statutory body guidelines.

Chapter 9-Performance Evaluation Policy

The performance evaluation policy is a systematic process of jointly assessing the work-related achievements, strengths, and weaknesses of individual employees. This activity also helps provide performance feedback to individuals and teams to which the staff belongs. It represents a link between goal setting and reward setting. This is an effort to establish a fit between individual targets and Institute goals.

9.1 Job Evaluation:

This is a systematic method of determining the relative value of all jobs in the Institute. The value is based on job content, not on how well an individual performs the work. Staff must complete the 'Self-appraisal form' after the completion of an academic year.

9.2 Performance Appraisals: Performance appraisal is a benefit given to employees to form a proper job matrix in the Institute.

9.3 Appraisal Factors: Factors used to appraise an individual's performance in a job include:

- Education - Depth of knowledge normally acquired through education or specialized formal training.
- Experience - Depth and breadth of knowledge or skill in terms of related work experience and on-the-job training.
- Job scope - Decision-making requirements including job complexity, independence of action, analytical and creative job requirements.
- In campus relationships - Responsibility for contacting and dealing with administrative staff, faculty, students, and others within the Institute. Relationships with seniors, subordinates, juniors, etc.
- Out campus relationships - Responsibility for representing the Institute.
- Managerial responsibility - Influence on the importance of decisions, including responsibility for budgeting, managing human resources, utilization of assets, revenue control, planning, policy, and strategy development.
- Position conditions - Degree to which the position has certain undesirable working conditions.

- Integrity- - Integrity with the Institute, initiative, ability to shoulder responsibility, etc.

9.4 Parameters of Evaluation: Each employee of the Institute is evaluated in a systematic manner on an annual basis. The Head of the Department leads the performance appraisals, which are further reviewed by the Principal and Management. Areas to be evaluated include adjustment to the position, attitude, cooperation, attendance and punctuality, potential for future development, productivity, capability, goals, and efficiency.

- Student Feed Back: Confidential student feedback shall be collected twice a semester and reviewed by the Executive Director. This will be maintained in the Head of the Department/Principal's office.

- Lecture monitoring: Once a year, each faculty member's lecture is monitored. The Principal, Head of the Department, and one senior faculty from a different department monitor and evaluate the lecture and fill in the Lecture Monitoring form. It is then submitted to the Principal and maintained in the Head of the Department/Principal's office.

9.5 Lecture Monitoring Form

Result analysis: - Analysis of results for subjects taught by the faculty.

The following formulae may be used as guidelines for the Time Management for working at YBP Polytechnic.

- 40% teaching, 30% institutional/departmental work, and 30% self-developmental work.
- 50% official work, 30% institutional/departmental work, and 20% self-developmental work.
- 75% study, 15% curricular/extracurricular activities, and 10% other administrative work.

9.6 Process of Performance Appraisal: A self-appraisal is the first step in the appraisal process. Employees are asked to sign appraisal forms. The employee's signature does not imply agreement with the appraisal but acknowledges that the employee has seen it. Differences can be discussed with Management, who will then perform an independent analysis of the issue. Productivity and activity are key considerations in evaluating any employee.

It is the responsibility of the employee to ensure that they have had at least one performance appraisal during twelve months of service. All performance appraisals are used to provide positive and developmental assessments of individuals and are not used as tools of personal vendetta under any circumstances.

9.7 Training and Development Programs for Teaching /Technical / Supporting staff:

From time to time, Management deutes staff for training both outside and within the organization based on the Head of the Department's recommendations. Basic training, such as ISO 9001:2000 awareness and medical issues awareness, is often organized in-house. Employees are also encouraged to attend training sponsored by organizations like the Indian Society for Technical Education, University, Directorate of Technical Education, University Grants Commission, and All India Council for Technical Education.

- The Institute encourages all staff to undergo Quality Improvement Programs (QIP) and attend other relevant training and seminars as part of its faculty development programs. Depending on the merit of the case and the budget allocated to the department/section, the Institute may cover complete or partial expenses for registration, boarding, lodging, etc.
- At the beginning of the academic year, each department is briefed about the budget allocated to them to meet expenses.
- For all paper presentations, on-duty leave is given, and expenses are borne by the Institute as per the decided norms.
- A record of training is to be kept by all employees in their personal files. The Institute encourages and supports the training and development of all its staff members and is dedicated to promoting a vibrant team of employees.

Chapter 10 - Promotion and Transfer Policy

10.1 A promotion is the shift of an employee from one position to another with more responsible duties or requiring more skills. 10.2 A transfer is the shift of an employee from one position to another of the same classification or to one with comparable skills and in the same general pay range. Transfers are based on mutual agreements between departments and the consent of employees.

10.4 Transfers and Promotions During Probation Period are subject to administrative approval by the Principal.

10.5 Employees are encouraged to apply for any position for which they are qualified and should contact the Registrar for specific information.

10.6 When an employee is promoted either by applying for an advertised position or via the reclassification process, they may receive remuneration based on exceptional experience, education, and job responsibility.

10.7 A faculty member desiring promotion to a higher post faces the Selection Committee Appointed by MSBTE Mumbai. Based on the committee's recommendations, the faculty member may be granted promotion.

Employees must be clear about the standards expected of them and the consequences if these standards are not met. Disciplinary arrangements are an important part of an employer's overall responsibility. Although disciplinary action involves sanctions against an employee, its primary purpose is to maintain and improve standards.
- The purpose of these procedures and disciplinary rules aim to establish equitable and consistent standards throughout the Institute and ensure that disciplinary action is fair and reasonable in each case.
- Normally, no formal disciplinary action is taken without some informal counseling where the employee is made aware of any shortcomings in standards or behavior. These shortcomings should be discussed between the employee and the Head of the Department.
- It is hoped that most difficulties can be resolved through counseling. However, the disciplinary procedure may be implemented at any stage if the alleged misconduct or unsatisfactory performance warrants such action.
- The Head of the Department will outline the cause of concern and the employee will be given an opportunity to state his/her case. Head of the Department are required to provide appropriate prior notification of any allegations and any evidence, in accordance with natural justice. A written record of all disciplinary hearings and appeals are kept.
- If the conduct or performance of an employee is not satisfactory, they are required to attend a formal disciplinary hearing held by the Head of the Department and the Principal. If the explanation is unsatisfactory, an appeal against a verbal/written warning notice issued by the superior may be made in writing within seven days of receipt of the warning. The appeal will normally be heard within fourteen days.
